Public Financial Management Conference

Tuesday 8 May, 2018, Serena Hotel Islamabad, Pakistan

Theme: Good Governance – Helping Deliver Better Public Services

Managing public money effectively can help all areas of government activities including effective resource allocation, decision and policy making, the fight against fraud and corruption, better services and outcomes to improve the lives and well-being of people. The aim of the conference is to showcase how good governance and strong Public Financial Management (PFM) can underpin all facets of public sector activity around the world and also in Pakistan.

ICAP is delighted to present its third Public Financial Management Conference in conjunction with CIPFA, to discuss and debate the key issues in creating sustainable, transparent, and accountable government practices for citizens.

Professionalisation – developing public sector capacity

15:05 to 15:35

Gillian Fawcett, Head of International Affairs, CIPFA

Good governance and public financial management sit at the heart of any government to support economic growth and long-term financial sustainability. Many governments around the world are putting a high priority on the reform and improvement of PFM in order to achieve long-term financial sustainability for public services. But they won't be able to do this unless there is the capacity in place to do so. Developing public financial management capacity around the world is at the core of CIPFA's work.
